

Marshall Foundation Dissertation Fellowship

The Graduate College is pleased to announce the Marshall Foundation Dissertation Fellowship designed to help Arizona graduate students complete their doctoral dissertation.

Award: $10,788.00 provided by the Marshall Foundation (paid Spring 2010) and a Graduate Registration Scholarship (in-state waiver of tuition for 2 semesters Spring and Fall 2010, if needed) provided by the Graduate College. (Miscellaneous fees and health insurance are not covered)

Eligibility:

- University of Arizona doctoral candidates whose dissertation proposal has been approved by their doctoral committee, have filed the “Committee Appointment Form” with the Graduate College Degree Certification Office, and expect to complete and defend their doctoral dissertation within the one-year period of the award.
- U.S. Citizenship
- Legal residency in the State of Arizona, (must have filed and have been granted residency by the ABOR Residency Classification Office located at the UA in Modern Languages Room 347)
- Cumulative GPA of 3.5 or above
- Demonstrated financial need as determined by the Free Application for Student Aid (FAFSA) or by the student's own statement of financial support needed to complete the dissertation.
- Enrollment in a minimum of 3 dissertation units (900-level) to receive stipend.
- Agreement to make available an electronic copy of their dissertation to the Marshall Foundation for storing in its Library.
