General Information

1. If you are applying for a non-degree course or program that is conducted by or affiliated with the Extended University, Evening & Weekend or VideoCampus components, please return this form to: Extended University, The University of Arizona, P.O. Box 210158, Tucson, AZ 85721-0158.
2. Please be advised that international applicants will be required to satisfy all conditions listed in the International Applicant Instructions and Information section below. The University of Arizona does not issue visa documents for non-degree studies.
3. Consult the Schedules of Classes for registration information. The on-line version is available at <http://www.arizona.edu>.
4. Non-degree students are not eligible for scholarships or financial aid.
5. No more than twelve (12) graduate units taken as a non-degree student may be eligible to apply toward an advanced degree awarded at the University of Arizona. It is important that you contact your future department concerning the acceptance and total number allowed of non-degree units.
6. Academic advising for applicants who have not identified a degree program is available at the Graduate College, Administration Building, Room 302, (520) 621-7814.
7. Social Security Number Policy: The disclosure of a student's social security number is voluntary. The social security number will be used to identify student records and to facilitate registration, transcript requests, certification requests and to certify attendance.

Domicile Affidavit

1. A domicile affidavit must be filed by each domestic applicant (U.S. citizen or national) applying for graduate admission to the University for the first time, and by each domestic applicant who is returning after an absence of one or more regular semesters.
2. Every person whose domicile is not in the state of Arizona is required by law to pay tuition in addition to other fees and charges. For information contact the Residency Classification Office, Education Building, Room 122, (520) 621-3636.

Measles Immunization: Proof of immunization against measles and rubella is a University requirement. All students born after December 31, 1956, are required to show proof of immunization against both measles and rubella administered after December 31, 1979. Documents may be mailed to Measles Coordinator, Campus Health Service, The University of Arizona, PO Box 210095, Tucson, AZ 85721-0095 or faxed to (520) 621-9471. Questions may be addressed to gilroy@health.arizona.edu or (520) 621-2384.

Mandatory Health Insurance: University of Arizona regulations mandate that ALL students on non-immigrant visas carry the university's student health insurance plan for each term of enrollment. The Campus Health Service grants a limited number of waivers to this requirement subject to approval. Privately purchased insurance policies are not accepted. Questions about the insurance requirement or exemptions may be directed to duell@health.arizona.edu or (520) 626-9321.

International Applicant Instructions and Information

The University of Arizona does not issue visa documents for non-degree studies. You must currently be in the United States on a visa that is valid for the full length of time you wish to study. Please note that some visa types do not permit non-degree studies.

You must receive advising and application approval in person from the Graduate Admissions Office or the International Center.

As a nonimmigrant, you must satisfy the following requirements to be eligible for non-degree admission:

1. You must be in good standing with regard to your visa status.
2. If you are currently enrolled in study elsewhere, you must be in good academic standing at that institution.
3. If English is not your native language, you must submit evidence of a minimum TOEFL score of 550 (213 CBT), taken within two years of your intended date of enrollment. This policy may only be waived if you have completed two years of full-time upper division academic study or have received a bachelor's degree or higher from an institution in the U.S., English-speaking Canada, the United Kingdom, Australia or New Zealand.
4. You must have earned a degree that is considered comparable to the U.S. bachelor's degree. You may be required to submit transcripts and/or degree certificates. The Graduate College will determine your eligibility based upon the educational background information you provide.
