Dear Graduate Students,
You will see some opportunities below from familiar sources such as NSF and the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science. But there are some new and interesting opportunities as well. If you are working on fellowship applications over the summer, don’t miss the upcoming workshops offered by our office to help you through the process! See below for more information:

Workshops
- Summer Workshop Series on Writing for Fellowships

General Funding Opportunities
- Consortium for Faculty Diversity in Liberal Arts Colleges: Dissertation and Postdoctoral Fellowships
- Fulbright U.S. Student Program
- Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (and Humanities) Pre/Post Doctoral Fellowships
- National Science Foundation (NSF) Graduate Research Fellowship Program (GRFP)
- Pathways to Federal Careers

Opportunities in the Humanities/Arts/Social Sciences
- Alexander von Humboldt Foundation’s German Chancellor Fellowship Program
- Association for Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action (ARNOVA) Doctoral Fellowship Seminar
- Charles Koch Foundation Dissertation Grants and Postdoctoral Fellowships
- Émigré Memorial German Internship Program (EMGIP)
- Fahs-Beck Doctoral Dissertation Grant Program for Research in Human Services
- Huntington Research Fellowships
- John F. Kennedy Library Foundation Fellowships
- Lilly Library Fellowships - Indiana University at Bloomington
- NSF Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant – Political Science (see NSF website for DDIGs under other directorates)
- Olympic Studies Center Fellowships
- Society for the History of Technology Kranzberg Dissertation Fellowship

Opportunities in Science, Technology, and Engineering
- GEM Fellowship Program
- Microwave Engineering Fellowship/Microwave Engineering for Medical Applications Fellowship
WateReuse Arizona Scholarships

General Funding Opportunities

Consortium for Faculty Diversity in Liberal Arts Colleges: Dissertation and Postdoctoral Fellowships
The Consortium now invites applications for dissertation fellowships and post-doctoral fellowships from those who will contribute to increasing the diversity of member colleges by increasing their ethnic and racial diversity, maximizing the educational benefits of diversity and/or increasing the number of professors who can and will use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of students.
Citizenship: Applicants must be able to provide evidence of U.S. citizenship or unconditional permanent resident status at the time of hire.
Deadline: rolling (before October 31, 2015 preferred)
Website: http://www.gettysburg.edu/about/offices/provost/cfd/

Fulbright U.S. Student Program
The Fulbright U.S. Student Program offers opportunities for students and young professionals to undertake international graduate study, advanced research, university teaching, and primary and secondary school teaching worldwide. The program currently awards approximately 1,900 grants annually in all fields of study, to go to more than 140 countries worldwide.
If you are interested in applying or simply want more information, contact Emily Kotay, Scholarship Advisor in the Office of Nationally Competitive Scholarships. Students must apply through her office. Emily Kotay can be contacted at 520-621-0162 or emkotay@email.arizona.edu
Citizenship: USA
Campus Deadline: Sept 8, 2015

Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (and Humanities) Pre/Post Doctoral Fellowships
The purpose of the program is to provide opportunities to young and excellent pre-/post-doctoral researchers from the US, Canada and Europe to conduct, under the guidance of their hosts, cooperative research with leading research groups in universities and other Japanese institutions. In so doing, the program is designed to help advance the research of the visiting fellows, while augmenting opportunities for young researchers to come to Japan from the US, Canada and Europe.
Applications for this program are submitted by a host researcher in Japan who wishes to host a foreign postdoctoral fellow. All fields of the humanities, social sciences and natural sciences are included under this program. Doctoral students can apply under the short-term postdoctoral program.
Citizenship: US, Canada, the European Union Countries, Switzerland, Norway and Russia
Deadline: see website
Website: http://www.jsps.go.jp/english

National Science Foundation (NSF) Graduate Research Fellowship Program (GRFP)
The purpose of the NSF GRFP is to help ensure the vitality and diversity of the scientific and engineering workforce in the United States. The program is a wonderful source of funding for graduate students – providing awardees with $34,000 annually for three years, as well as additional benefits. NSF Fellows at the University of Arizona receive full tuition, mandatory fees, student health insurance for the Fellow, and a $500 travel grant during tenured years.

Students at the University of Arizona are eligible to receive application support for this fellowship. Registrants will receive: email updates with advice and links; access to examples of successful applications; feedback on application essays (provided the early internal deadline is met); invitations to information sessions on the fellowship and to workshops on the application process. To sign up for the program, please fill out this registration form.

Opportunities in the Humanities/Arts/Social Sciences

Alexander von Humboldt Foundation’s German Chancellor Fellowship Program
The Alexander von Humboldt Foundation’s German Chancellor Fellowship Program is targeted at university graduates from the United States, Russia, China, Brazil and India who have an international outlook and initial leadership experience. It addresses prospective decision-makers, multipliers and thought leaders from a broad range of professional fields such as politics, public administration and business as well as society and culture. The fellowships give them the opportunity to spend a year in Germany networking with other prospective leaders from abroad, who are also sponsored by the Humboldt Foundation, and to explore new solutions to the global issues of our times. With this programme Germany once again presents itself as a destination of choice for intercultural dialogue and as a meeting place for the international leaders of tomorrow. Citizenship: U.S., Russia, China, Brazil, and India
Deadline: September 15, 2015

Association for Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action (ARNOVA) Doctoral Fellowship Seminar
ARNOVA offers a unique fellowship opportunity for doctoral students writing a dissertation on a topic in nonprofit or philanthropic studies. Fellows will have the chance to get important feedback on their research, and funding to attend the 42nd Annual Conference in Hartford, CT. The research must be focused on a topic related to philanthropy, voluntary action, civil society and the nonprofit sector. Focus areas might include nonprofit institutions (e.g., hospitals, human service agencies, arts organizations, religious groups); or phenomena like civic advocacy, pro-social behavior and social capital; or issues related to nonprofit management, public policy and intersectoral relations. The scope of the studies may include these organizations or activities in the U.S. or other countries. Citizenship: Unrestricted
Deadline: August 31, 2015
Website: http://www.arnova.org/?doctoralapp
The Foundation is accepting research grant proposals from individuals interested in writing dissertations that investigate the role of free societies in advancing well-being. Proposals will be considered for dissertations across a variety of disciplines that examine foundational, system-level, and applied research questions. Accepted dissertation proposals will receive funding and additional resources to expand educational opportunities and career development.

Citizenship: U.S.A.
Deadline: Rolling

Émigré Memorial German Internship Program (EMGIP)
Émigré Memorial German Internship Program (EMGIP) offers internship opportunities for US and Canadian students in the German parliament, the Bundestag. The internships are two months long in positions matching the student’s interest and experience. Interns will be placed within the Verwaltung, preferably with a Sekretariat working for their preferred Ausschuss. In addition to contributing to the respective offices, interns have the opportunity to study legislative and administrative procedures in the German parliament.

Citizenship: U.S. and Canadian citizens and permanent residents are eligible to apply. International students who are enrolled in a full time course of study in the US or Canada may also apply.
Deadline: September 15, 2015

Huntington Research Fellowships
The Huntington is an independent research center with holdings in British and American history, literature, art history, and the history of science and medicine. The Library collections range chronologically from the eleventh century to the present and include seven million manuscripts, 420,000 rare books, 275,000 reference works, and 1.3 million photographs, prints, and ephemera. The Burndy Library consists of some 67,000 rare books and reference volumes in the history of science and technology, as well as an important collection of scientific instruments. Within the general fields listed above there are many areas of special strength, including: Middle Ages, Renaissance, 19th- and 20th-century literature, British drama, Colonial America, American Civil War, Western America, and California. The Art Collections contain notable British and American paintings, fine prints, photographs, and an art reference library. In the library of the Botanical Gardens is a broad collection of reference works in botany, horticulture, and gardening. The Huntington will award to scholars over 150 fellowships for the academic year 2016-2017. These fellowships derive from a variety of funding sources and have different terms. Recipients of all fellowships are expected to be in continuous residence at the Huntington and to participate in and make a contribution to its intellectual life. Fellowship tenure is one to five months and award amount is $3,000/month.

Opportunities in Science, Technology, and Engineering

GEM Fellowship Program
The National GEM Consortium provides three Fellowship Program. The MS Engineering Fellowship Program provides practical engineering summer work experiences through an employer sponsor and a portable academic year fellowship. The Ph.D. Engineering Fellowships offer doctoral fellowships to underrepresented minority students who have either completed, are currently enrolled in a master’s in engineering program, or received admittance into a PhD program. The Ph.D. Science Fellowship aims to increase the number of minority students who pursue doctoral degrees in the natural science disciplines — chemistry, physics, earth sciences, mathematics, biological sciences, and computer science.

Citizenship: Applicants must be U.S. citizen or U.S. permanent resident at the time of application

Microwave Engineering Fellowship/Microwave Engineering for Medical Applications Fellowship
The purpose of fellowship is to recognize and provide financial assistance to graduate students who show promise and interest in pursuing a graduate degree in applying microwave engineering to medical applications. The student must be actively pursuing a graduate degree in electrical engineering, applied physics, biomedical engineering or other appropriate field on a full-time basis at an accredited institution of higher learning. It is expected that the student will be engaged in studies and research or thesis related activities for at least 12 months following the award. Research work must clearly involve the application of RF and microwave techniques to medical problems, supervised by a full-time faculty supervisor.

Postdoctoral Opportunities

Cardiac Muscle Physiology Postdoctoral Research Associate (UA)
We are seeking a talented and highly motivated Postdoc for research projects in the field of cardiac muscle physiology to study the role of myosin binding protein-C (MyBP-C) in the regulation of cardiac contraction. Projects include development and characterization of novel and existing animal models of cardiac myosin binding protein-C, biochemical/biophysical investigations of cMyBP-C function, and molecular mechanisms by which mutations in cMyBP-C cause cardiomyopathies. Salary and benefits will be commensurate with experience in accordance with NIH guidelines

Human Frontier Science Program (HFSP) Postdoctoral Fellowships
HFSP postdoctoral fellowships encourage early career scientists to broaden their research skills by moving into new areas for study while working in a new country. HFSP fellowships are for three years. Fellows may choose to stay for up to three years in the host country or use the last year of their fellowship to return to their home country or to move to another HFSPO member country. Long-Term Fellowships (LTF) are for applicants with a Ph.D. in a biological discipline, who will broaden their expertise by proposing a project in the life sciences which is significantly different from their previous Ph.D. or postdoctoral work. Cross-Disciplinary Fellowships (CDF) are for applicants with a Ph.D. from outside the life sciences (e.g. in physics, chemistry, mathematics, engineering or computer sciences), who have had limited exposure to biology during their previous training.

Institute of Current World Affairs Fellowships

The Institute of Current World Affairs (ICWA) Fellowships nurture deep expertise in foreign cultures by supporting fellows engaged in self-designed independent study abroad for at least two years. A proposed fellowship must hold the promise of enriching public life in the US by enhancing understanding of foreign countries, cultures, and trends. ICWA provides “full financial support” for its fellows during the course of the fellowship experience. Eligible candidates must be under 36 years of age, have completed at least a bachelor’s degree, and possess the necessary language skills to carry out their projects overseas. Special consideration for fellows in Central and Eastern Europe and the Middle East and for fellows with graduate degrees in forestry or forest-related specialties.

Citizenship: unrestricted
Deadline: September 1 (for initial letter of interest)

Fulbright Scholar Program

The Fulbright Scholar Program offers teaching, research or combination teaching/research awards in over 125 countries. Opportunities are available for college and university faculty and administrators as well as for professionals, artists, journalists, scientists, lawyers, independent scholars and many others. In order to meet the changing needs of academia and develop new options to better accommodate the interests and commitments of today’s scholars, the program has introduced several innovations to the 2014-2015 program, including: Fulbright Flex Awards, Fulbright Postdoctoral/Early Career Awards, Salary Stipend Supplements, and Teaching English as a Foreign Language Awards. Interested faculty and professionals are encouraged to learn more about these opportunities, and hundreds of others, by visiting the Catalog of Awards.

Citizenship: U.S. citizenship
