

APPLY
BY NOV
1ST!

GRADUATING MAY '19?

Interested in research & considering a PhD?

JOIN AWARDS!

UA + UA South + Undergraduate Research Opportunities Consortium (UROC) have teamed up to offer the Access, Wellness, and Relational Determinants of School Success (AWARDSS) program - a flexible, high quality research apprenticeship, specifically designed for nontraditional and underrepresented students.

This program is funded by the Institute of Educational Sciences (#R305B160003), summer tuition waivers and fees are generously offered by the graduate college.

program details

SPRING '18

Orientation + Field Experience ▲ Writing Prep Course ▲ Research Methods E-Series ▲ Professional & Career Development Opportunities

SUMMER '18

Research Assistant position (matched by interest with a mentor + $4,000 stipend + travel + room + board supported) ▲ Research Proposal Course ▲ GRE Prep Course + Test ▲ Formal Presentation (Report, Poster, & Oral)

FALL '18

Graduate School Prep Course ▲ Continued Research Assistantship ($1,000 stipend) ▲ Assistance with Graduate School Applications

ELIGIBILITY

3.0+ GPA ▲ Junior/Senior, Post-Bacc (within 5 yrs), OR current Master's student ▲ Underrepresented

Professional Development and Travel funds Available!

For More Info: awardss.arizona.edu

Vicky Mullins, Project Director
mullins1@email.arizona.edu

Or apply directly at grad.arizona.edu/UROC
by Nov. 1, 2017